To Dispose Of Huts Remaining At Camp Through Tender Sale

Members of the Newmarket town council and representatives of War Assets Corporation witnessed the signing of the final agreements of sale of the military camp to the town of Newmarket Monday afternoon at a simple ceremony which saw the keys of the camp turned over to the town by the army.

Monday night's council meeting saw the passage of a by-law authorizing the sale of the military camp hospital and the two buildings which housed the C.W.A.C. to the Sangamo Electric Co. The buildings are being sold for $10,000, payable over three years.

Council also instructed the industrial committee to arrange for the disposition of the remaining buildings at the camp by submitting them to offers by tender with veterans and public organizations being given preference.

Buildings remaining on the camp property include the huts in the officers' compound, garages and coal sheds, the commanding officer's quarters, the dental building, and the officers' mess. The latter building is being held by the town against the possibility of turning it into a social centre. The Newmarket branch of the Canadian Legion has requested the use of two of the huts for club rooms and a letter was sent some months ago to the council by the Newmarket public school board asking the use of some of the huts, if necessary, to relieve the crowding of the public schools.

"We are asking the town council for a policy to guide us in the disposition of the remaining huts," Councillor Joseph Vale, chairman of the industrial committee, told council. "We have a choice of an auction sale or sale by tender. I favor the latter as the best way of determining who wishes the huts and of giving veterans preference."

"I favor the tender method because it would give us a chance to know who wants the huts and to decide who should have them in the best interests of the town," said Reeve Arthur D. Evans.

"Our policy up to now has been to turn over huts to those who can use them to provide employment," said Mr. Vale, referring to sale of buildings to the Sangamo Electric Co. and the sale of two huts to Albert Lindenbaum, a veteran who is building a cleaning plant on Davis Dr.

"We are swamped by enquiries daily," said Councillor George M. Byers, chairman of the property committee. "We definitely need to know now how the council wishes us to act in regard to these buildings."

"If the school board has asked for any of these buildings, we should certainly give it preference," said Councillor Frank Bowser.

BEGIN PLAY-OFFS

Newmarket and Aurora girls' softball teams meet in the Lions club park tonight, Thursday, at 7 p.m., in the first game of the play-offs. The Newmarket girls are currently the league leaders.

PLAY FRIDAY

The Rogers Majestic softball team, entered in the senior industrial league in Toronto, will play an exhibition game against Newmarket veterans at Stuart Scott school grounds at 6:45 p.m. Friday. The Newmarket team, leading the league, is marking time to the North Yonge play-offs. A second exhibition game will be played Wednesday by the veterans.

PLAY RETURN GAME

The Newmarket juniors will play Stouffville in the second game of a best two of three series Saturday afternoon at the Stuart Scott school grounds. Newmarket lost the first game and must win this one to stay in the play-downs.

Upper school results for Newmarket high school have been mailed to the candidates, Principal W. J. Lockhart said this week, and will be published next week.

VETERAN HOME

Sgt. Kenneth R. McCarnan arrived home from overseas on Thursday, Aug. 8. The son of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. McCarnan, he has been in the army three years, two of which were spent overseas. He trained at Camp Borden and Brantford before going overseas and saw action in France, Belgium, Holland and Germany. He received multiple wounds while in action. He is now on 30 days leave.

IS TRANSFERRED

Lieut. Nursing Sister Florence Chantler has been posted to Montreal from Chorley Park Hospital, Toronto.

SCORE HIGH IN THREE

Andrew Murdison and J. O. Little were high for three games with 50 plus six in the Aurora doubles tournament which was bowled at the Newmarket greens last Saturday. Other winners were Thompson and partner, Barrie, three wins. R. L. Pritchard and Vaughan Goring were high for two wins.

Carnival Carries On

Thunder showers washed out the Newmarket Lions club carnival at the Lions club park Wednesday night but the club president, R. C. Morrison, said that the carnival would be continued tonight at the park with the same attractions and with the draws being made then.

The rain began as the carnival was just getting underway.

The street dance which was scheduled for tonight will be held tomorrow night, Friday, on Main St., Newmarket.

"No one regrets the rain which spoiled the fun as much as we do," said Mr. Morrison, "but we intend to continue tonight with all the attractions and fun that were planned for last night."

Revived Stouffville Nine Tumble Juniors 11 - 1

By Geo. Haskett

Newmarket's league winning juniors are one game down in the first round of the Ontario Baseball Association play-downs. On Saturday, the Stouffville juniors swamped the Redmen 11-1 at the Stouffville ball orchard. Loose fielding caused the downfall of the local kids as they chalked up eight errors on the score book and possibly could have gone down for a further half a dozen miscues.

The fire ball pitching of Fred Shpilman also proved quite a stumbling block to the Redmen as his assortment of stuff sent 11 of them down by the strike-out route. The heavy hitting Redmen were limited to six hits by Shpilman and these were well spread around. "Lefty" Gibson, on the firing line for Newmarket, was nicked for eight hits but poor support afield paved the way for his defeat.

It wasn't until the ninth that the locals finally broke the row of goose eggs. Tommy Dales singled to open the attack, then engineered a steal to second and crossed the plate with the lone counter on Loring Doolittle's sharp single.

Loring Doolittle, brought in from the Aurora juniors to replace Stan. Winger, wielded the most potent bat for Newmarket, pushing out two singles. Red Palmateer, Gar. Doolittle, also up from the Aurora juniors, Grant Blight and Tommy Dales punched out the other hits credited to the canal town forces.

Jewett, Schell and Miller were the big noises with the willow for the victors, each coming through with two hits, Schell and Miller getting triples.

The Stouffville club is a much stronger squad all down the line than the one to show against Newmarket during the regular season. In addition to the regular club, Jewett, Sellars and Rowse have been added from Milliken, while Shpilman previously pitched for Markham.

The Redmen will be strictly on the spot in the second game scheduled for the S. S. school grounds, Saturday afternoon. They must win to stay in the O.B.A. play-downs.

Summary: Stouffville, 11 runs, 8 hits, 1 error; Newmarket, 1 run, 6 hits, 8 errors.

Line-up: Newmarket: Blight, Rutledge, Palmateer, G. Doolittle, McTavish, Dales, L. Doolittle, Thoms, Brown, Hill, Gibson, Broughton. Umpires: B. Bell, L. Murphy.

DR. WALTER IRWIN VISITS NEWMARKET

Dr. Walter Irwin, Eaton Rapids, Mich., returned to the scene of his early life when he paid a short visit to Newmarket this week. It was the first time he had spent any time in Newmarket in 57 years. The son of the late Jared Irwin and Eliza Armitage, Dr. Irwin recalled attending Newmarket high school when it had only three rooms. Dr. Irwin is still practising medicine in Eaton Rapids. While here, he called on old friends, including Silas Armitage and J. Jay Watson.

O. STUART BARKER IS VISITOR HERE

O. Stuart Barker, well known singer and teacher from the Chicago Conservatory, Chicago, has been a guest in Newmarket for the past ten days at the home of Mrs. George Mainprize, 104 Prospect Ave.

A musicale was held last Sunday evening to which Mrs. Mainprize had invited 20 guests. Herman G. Fowler, organist of Trinity United church, was accompanist for Mr. Barker, who sang 15 songs.

As a boy, Mr. Barker attended Newmarket high school, studied under J. E. Dixon, J. D. McKay and J. E. Hollingshead, but early in life he took to singing and teaching as a career. For many years he was a concert singer in Toronto, but during the last several years has given instruction in Chicago.

ACT TOGETHER POLICY FORMED BY VETS ASSN.

By ORVILLE GANTON

The Newmarket Veterans' Association held a general meeting in the new club room to revise its constitution and formulate policy to meet the changed situation that has developed in local veterans' affairs during the past year on Thursday evening. A constitution committee of Bert Ward, Rev. Henry Cotton, Reeve A. D. Evans, and under the chairmanship of Herb. Gladman, presented a new constitution which, it was thought, would allow for the closest co-operation between the two local veteran bodies as well as protecting the independence and desire of each to function as separate organizations.

Aubrey Scythes said that at present he was a member of both bodies, that he intended "to go all out" for veterans' welfare and thought he could best accomplish his purpose by retaining a close connection and interest in both bodies. He said he could safely say 98 percent of the legion's membership held the same viewpoint.

Reeve Evans said that as a result of his experience on the town council, he was of the opinion circumstances in the future would force some form of co-ordination in certain phases of local veterans' work.

Wm. Dixon, an original member of the association, said that while he favored a friendly atmosphere he thought each organization should function separately in order to get best results.

Wm. Andrews gave the meeting some instances of local veterans attempting to create petty animosities, and thought both associations should discipline their members for it.

Norman Legge, secretary of the veterans' sports committee, thought everyone living in a small community must mingle and co-operate to some extent and not to do so "was the sign of a one-track mentality."

Stan. Evans said he hoped cordial relations could be maintained. Pres. Bert Ward said that during the past year he tried to co-operate with the legion in every way. "Our sports and social facilities are free to every veteran in town. I have also appointed a standing committee of three to meet the legion executive any time they wish to talk over any matters pertaining to local veterans' welfare, he said.

After open debate, it was moved by Herb. Gladman and seconded by Orville Ganton and passed almost unanimously that clause 4 of the membership section should be revised to read as follows: "Full membership with privilege of voting shall be restricted to those who are not members of any other local veterans' organization."

TAXPAYERS SAY THANKS

The taxpayers on West Park Ave. where a part of the township of Whitchurch was recently annexed have set some sort of a precedent in Newmarket by writing a letter of thanks to the Newmarket town council for its "quick" action in laying cinders on a muddy road. The letter was signed by J. B. Waterhouse and thanked the council for its promptness in dealing with a mired roadway.

PLAN DANCE SEPT. 11

The Newmarket branch of the Canadian Legion was granted the use of the Newmarket arena on Sept. 11 for a dance, by the Newmarket town council Monday night. The legion asked if the arena was not available that the drill hall at the camp be opened to the legion. In granting the legion request, members of the council expressed the opinion that the drill hall would be the most suitable of the two buildings.

Council Approves Recreation Group Taking Over Rink

The Newmarket town council Monday night voiced its approval of the request of Mrs. J. C. R. Edwards to hand over the administration of the Newmarket arena to the recreation council. "The arena is a means of recreation for the town and members of the reereation council feel that its administration should be in the hands of a recreation group," she said.

Mrs. Edwards sought a definite promise from the town council that should the arena operate at a loss this year because of poor weather conditions, lack of hockey competition, or the cost of free skating for children, the town council would assume the loss. While refusing to commit themselves to a definite undertaking, members of the council assured Mrs. Edwards that the council would undertake financial support if necessary.

Mrs. Edwards was asked to report the council approval to the recreation council and to provide the town council with complete plans for the coming season at its next meeting. Mrs. Edwards' request came towards the end of a short report on recreation activities to the town council.

She touched briefly on the operations of the recreation council and presented an estimated financial report which showed receipts of $3,247.46, including individual donations of $615.70, and expenditures of $2,289.89.

"We are meeting now to plan fall and winter activities," she told the council members. "A word of commendation should be said to the recreation council," said Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales. "I think the suggestion of taking over the arena is a wise one. Don't worry too much about the cost."

"Don't forget that the arena was taken over with the thought that it could pay for itself," said Deputy-Reeve J. L. Spillette. "Get us artificial ice and it will pay for itself," said Dr. Dales. "I want to see more free skating at the arena," said Councillor Frank Bowser.

"The committee of council which handled the arena last year was restricted but the recreation council has a broader scope," said Reeve Arthur D. Evans. "I would like to see a swimming pool in the arena. The recreation council can take on these things. If the arena doesn't pay its way, let the town council pay for the free time for skating."

AIRMAN HOME

LAC Harold Simmerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Simmerson, arrived home from overseas on the Acquitania, and was in Newmarket Saturday noon.

LAC Simmerson has spent two years and eight months on active service, serving in Germany, Belgium and France. He trained in Toronto and northern Ontario and Quebec. He has been in the air force three years. While overseas he married an English girl in May of this year.

MRS. N. J. ROADHOUSE ARRIVES AT TUXFORD

Mrs. N. J. Roadhouse, formerly of Newmarket, arrived safely at the home of her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bogart, Tuxford, Sask., Aug. 17, after enjoying a journey of over 1,800 miles from Newmarket in her 84th year. Mr. Bogart writes that the crops in the district are very good with the harvest just beginning. "Some barley has been combined yielding 45-50 bus. per acre, and wheat is expected to yield an average of 25-30 bus. per acre," he adds.

Recreation Council To Meet On Fall Program

The Newmarket Community Recreation Council will meet Tuesday night over the fire hall to discuss plans and financing for the winter season. Urging a full turn-out, J. B. Bastedo, chairman of the council, pointed out that each organization is entitled to send one representative and asked the heads of the various organizations in town to make sure their organizations were represented.

"We have finished our summer program and must make plans for continuing through the fall and winter," said Mr. Bastedo. "It is a matter for a full council meeting. We must plan now if we are going to be able to provide a full program to take in the fall and winter months."

The recreation council has asked that it be given the administration of the arena and the town council has approved the suggestion. "The operation of the arena as well as provision for adult recreation are the main points on the agenda," said Mr. Bastedo. The meeting opens at 8.30 p.m. and will end no later than 10 p.m. There will be an executive meeting at 7.30 p.m.

GLAD. SHOW AUG. 31

The Horticultural society will hold its annual gladioli show in Trinity United church Sunday-school room on Saturday, Aug. 31. Entries must be placed by 2.30 p.m.

TO USE WIDDIFIELD PARK FOR TRAFFIC

Deputy-Reeve J. L. Spillette reported to the Newmarket town council Monday night that the town had been released from its obligations in connection with the Widdifield property lying between Water and Timothy Sts. Mr. Spillette had earlier been instructed to negotiate for the use of the property as a parking space to relieve the congestion on Main St.

The property was deeded to Newmarket on the condition that it be used as a children's playground and various proposals for its use have included a swimming pool, and provision of playground equipment. The agreement between the town of Newmarket and the Widdifield estate allows Newmarket to use the property for parking with children using it for play when cars are not parked there.

Throwin' By Bowen Brings 3-0 Victory For Langstaff

By ORVILLE GANTON

On Thursday, the cellar-dwelling Langstaff club made its last appearance of the season locally and clapped a 3-0 shutout on the league leading veterans. The game, which produced some of the classiest ball of the season, featured a superlative pitching performance by Bill Bowen and three lightning double plays by Newmarket's nifty infield.

The 19-year-old corner store kid has pitched top-notch ball all season, but last Thursday he was really hep. Outside of two clean singles by Dobbie and Mair and a well dragged bunt by Fred Evans, our bumpkins couldn't hit him with a handful of corn. Our troops chose to lay back on their spurs and slug it out but Bowen's heady change of pace and perfect control had that strategy completely bamboozled. Our pitchers, Dobbie and VanZant, were not responsible for the loss. Between them they allowed only six hits; but pitchers cannot do the hitting too.

In the third Norm Bowen tripled and scored on brother Bill's long foul fly which Pete Dillman should not have made a play on. Larocque who fielded nine hits flawlessly at second, homered in the fifth. Read scored their last run on a hit, an error and N. Bowen's well placed bunt.

Stan Evans had a big night for himself to pivot three fast double plays and come within a whisker of turning one into a triple play. Norm Legge legged it a country mile to shag a hoist into short centre.

However, the whole debacle can be summed up briefly in the following idioms! (Classical) He came, he saw, he conquered. (Genial) You can't keep a good man down. (Literary) Hark,

UNION HEAD DENIES RUMORS OF STRIKE

Lorne Paynter, president of Local 20, N.U.A.F.W., denied the rumor that his local is contemplating immediate strike action at the Office Specialty Mfg. Co. Ltd. "Hanover and some other locals of our union have ballots printed for a strike vote but the situation here has not yet reached that stage," he said.

"The big meeting we held last week was for the purpose of putting the company's reaction to our proposals before the members. Negotiations between the company and union which began last April have practically broken down," he continued.

"We have decided to ask the labor board for a conciliator. Our union has been working on new wage schedules for a long time but the main points of contention seem to be: union security, two weeks' vacation for employees with five years' service, and an increased afternoon rest period.

"It is true the situation at the present time does not look too bright but rash statements by irresponsible persons do not help any," he concluded.

HAS OPERATION

Myrna Brice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brice, had her tonsils removed this morning at York County hospital.

Division Court Records Found In Garage Attic

Documents dating back as early as 1840 were found recently by Dave Williams in the building which houses Williams' auto body repair shop and Pollock's garage. "I noticed them when I accidently knocked them down from the rafters of the roof," said Mr. Williams.

According to Fred S. Thompson, division court clerk, the documents are of no legal value, although some were found that were issued only 25 years ago. "Those papers have been moved around quite often. They were placed in the attic by K. N. Robertson who owned the building at that time," said Mr. Thompson. Mr. Thompson succeeded Mr. Robertson as division court clerk after the latter's death in 1937.

Most of the papers are warrants issued to recover debts, but ledgers and note books pertaining to similar matters were also discovered. Among the reports in a note book there are two referring to a Mr. J. C. Hagaboom, one in 1850 and another in 1860. These two representative letters are reproduced below.

"1850 — I, the undersigned, do promise and agree to pasture J. C. Hagaboom's cows through the summer of 1850. For the sum of 15 shillings said Hagaboom's cows to be pastured in the Woods' pasture till after harvest and in other fields belonging to me, Elias Doan. I further promise and agree that no other beast of any kind shall be allowed to be turned in said Woods' pasture during the time except my own cows. Signed, Elias Doan."

"1860 — I, the undersigned, do agree to furnish J. C. Hagaboom with good sound pine shingles to lay 20 squares five inches to the weather and to be counted on the roof and to be delivered at my place in time for the said J. C. Hagaboom to draw the same by sleighing by the 15th day of February, 1861, at the price of one dollar and 12½ cents per 10 feet square."

Some of the intervening documents are missing, so that the date at which the transition from sterling to dollars and cents is not known exactly.

No Polio Here - Wesley, Lists Precautions To Take

By DR. J. H. WESLEY, M.O.H.

This is a summary of what parents and teachers should know about the disease called "infantile paralysis."

The disease is not very well named. It is usually found in children under ten years of age, yet it is also common in young adults up to 18 or 20 years. In fact some years ago, polio-myelitis (as it is technically known because of involvement of the brain and spinal cord) was accurately diagnosed in a Newmarket man 40 years of age.

Polio is most prevalent during the latter part of August and the peak being reached in September, the number of cases diminishing with the onset of cooler weather. It is comparatively rare during the first six months of the year.

It is not the one in 20 death rate that drives terror to the mother's heart when her child is stricken with infantile paralysis, but the fact that it may be left a helpless cripple for life, and yet it is now known that only a small number of those contracting the disease develop paralysis. Results are largely influenced by early and adequate treatment.

At the present there is an epidemic of polio-myelitis in Canada, and by far the largest number of cases are in the city of Montreal, but so far there have been only a few cases in Ontario and Toronto. There have been no cases in or around Newmarket.

Since the epidemic of 1937, when there were about 3,000 cases diagnosed and reported in Ontario, the disease has not been so common.

This is a communicable disease and is spread from person to person by its highly contagious virus. Even a healthy person may carry the infection to others. The germ, or virus as it is called, is supposed to be present in the nose or throat and may be transmitted by coughing, kissing, sneezing. It may also be carried by clothing, dishes used by the sick person, the discharges, the house fly, and has even been found in sewage.

The onset of infantile paralysis may be like a head or chest cold with sore throat and fever, or it may be an indefinite sickness, marked with elevated tem-

THE ECONOMY OF A SWIMMING POOL

A full accounting of the cost of the swimming instruction program, sponsored by the Newmarket Community Recreation Program at Lake Wilcox, is not yet ready but preliminary estimates place it well over $1,200. Other estimates of interest are the approximate cost for each child on each trip of 30 cents for transportation from Newmarket to Lake Wilcox and back, and two cents for instruction and supervision.

These latter figures are interesting in that they show where a saving of 28 cents per child might have been accomplished had there been a swimming pool in Newmarket. That difference of 28 cents in the total would have made a sizable down-payment on a swimming pool for Newmarket. The money spent in transportation could have been spent in starting the construction of a swimming pool but since it could not have been completed in time for this summer, members of the recreation council considered immediate instruction of more importance than the cost. Considering the number of deaths by drowning each year in Ontario, and considering the proximity of Newmarket to large bodies of water, there can be no disputing the decision.

Recognizing the importance of teaching every child how to swim, the disparity in the costs of transportation and instruction is a further demonstration of how necessary it is to Newmarket that a swimming pool be built. As long as the argument in favor of a swimming pool was based on the more adequate provision of healthy recreation for children, there might have been some justification in disputing its value in terms of expense. In the face of a rising toll from drowning, with vacations beside water becoming a part of every family's summer program, there can be no argument in terms of cost. The value of a child's life can never compare with the cost of a swimming pool, be it luxurious as Cleopatra's baths.

A swimming pool can be ready for next summer if plans for its construction and financing are begun at once. It need not be a municipal project in the sense that it is undertaken by the Newmarket town council. There are sufficient interested organizations in Newmarket to carry the project to a successful end. As a senior body in Newmarket, let the town council name a representative citizens' committee to do the job. Once begun, there can be no doubt that such a committee will receive the whole-hearted support of the citizens of Newmarket.

A FEDERAL LABOR CODE NOW

The picket line about a strike-bound factory has taken on all the aspects of a wartime blockade of an enemy country. Non-striking workmen are prevented entry into the plant by a variety of methods ranging from a show of force in front of the factory gates to the barricade of cars which strikers used to block streets leading to the Ford plant in Windsor. If there was any doubt whether such practices are lawful, a recent judgment handed down by Magistrate J. E. Pritchard, K.C., should dispel it.

Magistrate Pritchard found two labor organizers, who had prevented the passage of non-striking employees through the picket line at the Anaconda Brass company plant at New Toronto, guilty under section 501 of the Criminal Code of "watching and besetting." He ruled that while workmen have the right to strike and form picket lines, they have not the right to hinder in any way other workmen who wish to pass through the picket line.

If there was an attempt to enforce this section of the Criminal Code at Hamilton where the Stelco plant is being picketed by striking steelmen, there would be mass violence as there has been in the past. Of more importance, it is questionable whether such an attempt would be successful. A determined picket line has been able to resist, with at least partial success, attempts to break through it by the police.

A law which cannot be enforced to the letter has no place on the statute books. Continual defiance of one law will lead to excesses of lawbreaking not now contemplated. Canada has so far largely avoided the industrial blood-shed which was prominent in steel and coal strikes a few years ago in the United States. Attempts to enforce section 501 of the Criminal Code will lead in that direction, however, just as effectively as following the policy of no action to enforce the section.

The cause of this dilemma is not section 501. The air-tight picket line is organized labor's answer to strike-breaking tactics of management. If the right to organize, the right to bargain collectively, the right to strike are recognized, then a limit on the practices of strike-breaking is a reasonable corollary. The lack of such legislation is one cause of the bitterness of current industrial disputes. The fact is that there is no unified labor code, modern in its recognition of the complexities of industrial disputes and containing checks against the development of a situation such as now exists at Hamilton.

The federal government has as its duty the immediate provision of such a code, designed above all to maintain production. Towards that end, such a code should include arbitration boards made up of public, labor and management representatives to sit on wage disputes, provision of enforced cooling-off periods, protection of each party from unjust action by the other, recognition of the various types of industrial disputes with provision of means to settle them without interfering with production.

Such a code has long been wanting in Canada. Nothing could so demonstrate its need as the current situation in the steel industry where an industrial dispute has been allowed to develop to a point where the whole economy of the country has suffered. The immediate provision of impartial legislation defining the rights of labor and management and providing definite arbitration procedures will prevent a repetition of the lamentable failure of the government to maintain production.

FROM A POLITICAL POINT OF VIEW

It's all according to your politics. The Thursday issues of the Toronto Daily Star and the Toronto Evening Telegram carried headlines on the same story, the announcement in the House of Commons regarding deserters from the services. The Star said: "14,000 Deserters Lose Rights." The Telegram said: "Army Deserters Forgiven."

Here is the gist of the news stories which carried these widely divergent headlines. The minister of defence, Hon. D. C. Abbott, and the minister of labor, Hon. Humphrey Mitchell, made announcements in the House of Commons to the effect that deserters still absent are to be deprived of their discharge benefits and gratuities, and that no further court actions will be instituted.

The Telegram, a Progressive Conservative newspaper, has been very much concerned about the fate of deserters. It has expressed editorial fears about the "pressure" exerted on the government from Quebec to announce a general amnesty as after the last war. Apparently, in the announcements in the house, the Telegram finds its fears realized. In a sub-headline to the news story, it says "Ottawa yields to pressure for amnesty for deserters and draft dodgers."

The Star, a Liberal newspaper, pooh-poohs any suggestion of amnesty, devoting most of the news story to the "penalties." Apparently the Star recognizes the wide-spread feeling in Ontario against general amnesty and in its story, says: "It is not amnesty for these persons for there is the specific penalty that these people who went absent without leave or who deserted before Jan. 1, 1946, and weren't apprehended before Aug. 15, will lose all rights, privileges and benefits that would normally result from their military service."

When the political pro and con of the issue is removed, it can hardly be said that a penalty is being imposed upon a man in shape of the loss of service benefits when that man has never served as is the case of those who ignored draft calls. Neither can it be said that deserters are forgiven when, as the government statement infers, the expense is not worth the tracking of the absentees down. The headlines quoted above are a fair example of the political outlook of the respective dailies and their resulting interpretation of the news.

COMMUNITY USE OF OFFICERS' MESS

The citizens committee, under whose sponsorship the July 1 sports day was held at the military camp when it was used as a training centre, has voted to continue, at least temporarily, and to consider the possibilities of operating the officers' mess as a social centre for Newmarket. Citizens generally will applaud the decision. Newmarket sorely needs a community centre where public affairs such as teas, parties, and sales can be held, where speakers can be heard, and which would serve as a gathering place in the evenings.

It has been suggested that advantage be taken of the kitchen facilities and meals served there. A frequent complaint heard in Newmarket is that there is no place to entertain a business associate. Use of the officers' mess as a restaurant and a community club would answer that complaint.

The committee is meeting at the end of this month to further consider the possibilities of making a social centre of the officers' mess. While there is approval of the committee's intention, there are those who fear that it may result in a "closed corporation." We are confident that the committee recognizes that making a social centre of the officers' mess can only be justified if such a centre is truly community-wide in its administration and service.

In Passing

The fighting between Hindus and Moslems in India is sufficient answer to those critics of Great Britain who have insisted that all Britain had to do was to get out of India so that the Indians might take over the government of their own country. The tyranny of the caste system is far greater than anything employed by Great Britain. The Indians have yet to demonstrate a willingness to admit minorities to full rights of the majority, something guaranteed under British rule.

The announcement of the minister of labor, Hon. Humphrey Mitchell, that registration cards are no longer a necessary part of Canadian life will be greeted with approval by all Canadians who resent any suggestion of the licensing of citizens by the government as an infringement on the personal liberty of citizens.

During the conscription crisis, according to evidence submitted to the House of Commons committee on radio broadcasting, a Bloc Populaire speaker was refused time on a Canadian Broadcasting Corporation station. This was a mistake, Dr. Augustin Frigon, general manager of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, admitted to the committee. A fault of government control of a medium of expression is that such "mistakes" can be made.

THE COMMON ROUND

SHUTTING OUT

In these days of stress and strain when we look askance at nations we do not understand, and they return the compliment, re-education seems to be the theme song on the lips of those who feel there can be a better understanding between nations diverse in ideas, ideals and language.

But when we Anglo-Americans talk of re-education we come at once to the stumbling blocks and find that in the stream of prejudices and ideas the stepping stones are few and far between.

Then, too, re-education is as many faceted as there are nations trying it out.

I've been, as I presume you have been, reading a great deal about the re-education of Germany, and the seemingly insurmountable difficulties that keep cropping up. Some one has said that the only hope for Germany is in her women and very small children. They maintain that the men are still Nazi at heart and even the boys are so imbued with the Nazi ideology that change seems a far away possibility — more likely a dream.

There is such a chasm between the Nazi ideology and our ideas, however poorly we live up to them, that there seems no common ground to meet on. When interviewed on the subject of the war — whether they did not think war wicked and cruel — the answer was practically unanimous — "yes, when you lose it." There was no remorse for what they had done — just the refuge of the poor spirited blame for someone else.

One wonders what will really be Germany's ultimate fate. The Anglo-American occupation forces are trying to instill democracy, the Russians communism. If Germany is ever one again, as far as one can see, it will be the same as Jew and Arab or Hindhu and Mohammedan for the democratic and communistic forms of living meet on very few grounds.

It may be that it will keep Germany so occupied with civil troubles that she will not have time to sneak in any military ones. It's just another question in a world where question marks are the insignia of every land.

Nazism and communism had one thing in common, they had no religion, and it seems to me that this is one of the points where Christian nations—even if none are worthy of the name—find it hard to reach a common standpoint with Russia.

We who acknowledge Christ as the great exponent of the real law and the prophets, feel that at the very foundation of a world peace, there should be a foundation stone of Christian principles, but how to lay it with pagan mortar?

The Book of Revelation is a great book to read at a time like this. It reminds us that if our faith is neither hot nor cold, it doesn't amount to much. I wonder how many of us pray for the peace of the world every day. "More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of" was as much a prophetic utterance as if it had been written by Isaiah or any of the prophets.

Too often we poor mortals are prone to forget that we have this most powerful and wonderful and beautiful lever in our hands. Used by everyone who dares call himself Christian, it could lift the world out of the present chaos and establish it on a sure foundation of peace and brotherhood and freedom.

TO THE EDITOR

The Editor, The Era and Express: Enclosed please find $2 for the renewal of my subscription. We always enjoy the paper. This week I was reading about Joyce Hill of Newmarket touring the States. On Aug. 5 I happened to be listening to "Queen for a Day", a program from Hollywood, and was quite surprised and thrilled to hear the announcer say, "The next candidates will be two young hitchhikers from Canada," and they were Joyce and Margaret Smith from Brampton.

They were elected "Queen for a Day" and received among many beautiful gifts, a bicycle to wheel home. It was exciting to hear it, to say the least.

Thanking you, sincerely,
Mrs. A. C. Bailey,

Too Many Women in His Life

Ed, age 14, is a victim of circumstances directly related to his home environment. His mother and three sisters are directly responsible for making him the conceited sap he is today. The over-balanced feminine influence has made such a pampered darling out of "Eddie" that his own hard working father considers him a poor excuse for a son.

Ed's three sisters are continually fussing over and about him. They vie for his affection and attention. They lie, borrow and beg in his behalf. Unlike most boys from families of the same low income bracket, Ed has no thought of working to earn spending money. It's too easy to get contributions from the working members of his immediate family. Ed feels plenty smart because these contributions more than equal the pay his contemporaries earn with their paper routes and grass-cutting, snow-shoveling programs.

Try as they do, Ed's sisters and mother can't buy his affection. He simply uses them to secure his own ends; he has no respect for any of them. Ed is fast becoming an adult parasite. At this stage in his life he is commonly known as Ego Ed. Unless some new, creditable influence soon enters his life, the family honor will be jeopardized. Ed is growing up without a sense of responsibility and, as a consequence, is becoming a definite menace to society.

Settle Own Fights

Ronny and Kenny are seven years old. They have been next door playmates for the past four years. Most of the time they are the best of friends despite their periodic word battles and fist fights. The parents used to take sides in a futile attempt to decide who was to blame for the fights. Invariably, the adults were still bad neighbors long after the children had forgotten the incident. Sometimes, the boys would be on a new theme of discord while their parents were still unfriendly over the last episode. On several occasions it looked very much as if one or the other of the families would have to leave the neighborhood.

It wasn't until after the boys started to school that the parents got wise to themselves and gave up trying to settle affairs concerning which they knew nothing and had only heard their own child's one-sided version. It seems the boys had a scuffle on the playground just before school opened one day. The teacher heard both sides of the story, blamed neither of the boys, simply decided they couldn't fight if they were separated so proceeded to separate them for the rest of the day. At no time were they allowed to be together either in the classroom or on the playground that day. That was a very long day for both the boys. As soon as they were together on their way home from school that day, they began to discuss the scuffle and an argument was soon started—each trying to take the blame for it.

After Ronny and Kenny had told their parents of the day's scuffle and the latest argument, they wondered why no neighborly feud resulted. It just happened that this time both families' sense of humor came to the fore and after the boys were in bed, they spent a pleasant evening getting acquainted on friendly terms. Before the evening was over, they had decided Ronny and Kenny were old enough to settle their own arguments without adult interference. Since that time a brief separation policy for the boys only has served the purpose of bringing about friendly relations, temporarily, at least.

Ronny and Kenny don't bother telling wild tales of their little fights to their parents these days. They are learning to settle their own differences of opinion and without fists, usually—possibly because cuts and bruises warrant the disliked separation policy.

Sabbath Observance

By J. JAY WATSON

Day by day, at the regular dining hours, we experience a hunger for material nourishment. Day by day through life we also need the nurture of the Spirit. Paul says in I Corinthians: "But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit to profit withal."

I have been observing a mechanic engaged with his tools in a repair job. It brought to my mind not only the value of tools, but the users knowing how to manipulate them.

There are many tools in life. I like to think of the Sabbath as a tool not only for the benefit of sweetening the day, but for the betterment of the days ahead. It is essential for the mechanic to know how to employ his tools. It is essential to our well-being that we know how to use the Sabbath—church attendance will teach this.

Sabbath observance has a seasoning effect in character building. The following seems to point to an urge for this: A friend was speaking of his summer camp in the country. On asking him how he managed the fuel question, he replied he gathered wood in the surrounding woods. The green wood thus obtained, however, proved unsatisfactory, so he employed a man to cut wood for him in advance of the need for it. Later when the friend came to examine the cut wood he was agreeably surprised to find in the pile of it at regular intervals, sticks of cedar wood. This latter was for kindling, which to me served as a symbol for the Sabbath.

Just as kindling is necessary for building a fire, so the Sabbath, rightly observed, can serve as kindling to stimulate the power of the Spirit within. In James we read: "Behold how much wood is kindled by how small a fire!"

Fun At The Picnic

By GOLDEN GLOW

Week before last I wrote on the general subject of picnics. Well, this week I want to make it specific and tell about one I attended yesterday. Is this a good way to spend a lovely Sunday afternoon? I think so, myself, and while yesterday's outstanding picnic is fresh in my mind I can tell you my personal impression of it, and so share it with you in this way.

First of all you will want to know what particular picnic I am talking about—writing about, I mean; where we went, and why I say it was an outstanding picnic. Well to begin properly, I'll say at the start, it was the first of what everyone who was there hopes will be the annual Davis Leather picnic, and it was held at Alcona Beach, Innisfil Park, Lake Simcoe, a few miles south of Barrie. We all went up in Gray Coach buses provided by the firm, or in private cars—employees and their families. The firm provided everything, and I can't think of anything, in any shape or form, that was not thought of and provided for the comfort and pleasure of the many guests who were there.

As we drove in the gate of the park we were given tickets, or should I say labels, which we all wore the rest of the afternoon to show we were members of the Davis Leather Co. picnic, and which later provided merriment as we all tried to locate the "mystery man," Mr. X. May I just say here there was a catch in it which no doubt many may not know even yet, till the menfolk go home for dinner at noon tomorrow, for I understand it will be posted on the bulletin board tomorrow at the plant. The mystery man was a very attractive young lady, Miss Audrey Benton, and we were supposed to ask her "Are you Mr. X?" instead of which we asked the women and girls were they "Mrs. X." It created a lot of fun, and certainly was the means of getting people into circulation, for the loud speaker kept saying "Mr. X hasn't been located yet; keep on asking."

Yes we even had Stewart Beare's loud speaker and it was greatly appreciated, and kept events moving in rapid succession. It was located in the pavilion and, as the races were run and the contests all staged on the track beside it, we all could hear the announcer.

As we arrived and parked our car opposite the pavilion, the loud speaker was giving a selection of popular songs and folks everywhere were humming and singing—and several were dancing round later on the green to popular music. It was a picture too, as we arrived, for they had just cut up several watermelons for the children, and were they ever being appreciated! I heard after that we put away 24 huge watermelons, 600 oranges, and I don't know how many gallons of ice cream cones, all provided, as I said, by the company. The children, naturally, and the young people all made tracks for the beach for swimming and bathing, but soon the loud speaker called them to the races and contests, and, before we realized it, it was getting time to eat.

Davis' red trucks arrived with "dinner." Hot coffee, several kinds of sandwiches, all individually wrapped in waxed paper, pickles aplenty, and several kinds of cake were provided. There were cartons of milk for the children and grown-ups alike, chocolate and plain, and as a dainty finish, ice cream in little cartons, eaten with tiny wooden spoons. I probably have forgotten a few items, but I assure you those in charge of arrangements hadn't overlooked or forgotten anything.

The ample provision of tables in the pavilion was not sufficient for the crowd — several more had to be set up along the side — and the loud speaker entertained those already seated till all were accommodated and the announcer said: "Mrs. Leonard Little will lead in singing grace, will you all please join in?" And the 490 or more guests, as one man, rose to their feet and sang the time-honored grace, "Be present at our table, Lord, Be here and everywhere adored."

As the picnic supper ended the announcer called Mr. Ernie Smith of Toronto, organizer of the Canadian Federation of Labor, who with his wife and niece were also guests, to come to the mike, and speak a few words; then Mr. Belugin, superintendent, spoke and Mr. Lind, general manager, brought the speaking to a close, and once again contests were the order of the day.

Quite a few of the men departed for the horse-shoe pitching contest held on the baseball grounds, and the women's contests were put on beside the pavilion—Jiggs with Maggie and her rolling pin, kicking the slipper, driving nails and so on—you know all the fun-making contests and races, so I'll not enumerate.

Just as we left the supper tables we were all assembled, by Mr. Lind's invitation, to have a panorama photo taken — we hope it will appear in this paper very soon. Mr. and Mrs. Lind expect to move to town this fall, having purchased the beautiful home of the late Mr and Mrs. Ken. Robertson on the corner of Park Ave. and Church Sts. They met quite a number of employees and their families and many were the kind remarks heard on every side to show the popularity of the new general manager, and interest was taken in the fact that they will soon be citizens of our community.

The weather was certainly anything but promising in the morning, and I, like everyone else interested, was watching to see a break in the clouds to say the rain was over. So I listened to the newscast and when they said 'wet and showery but clearing by afternoon.' I called up Davis' office and handed on the good news of the latest weather prediction. A voice responded "Oh good—I'll tell the rest." So that evidently settled things, for Mr. Belugin told me later he immediately had it posted on the bulletin board with the signal of the green light to go ahead.

You see if it had proved inclement we would have held it in the drill hall at the camp, but the weather-man must have also been interested in this first venture of an employees' picnic given by the firm, for a more delightful afternoon, as to the weather, could not have been possible, and it was a happy cavalcade that, coming home at dusk, turned off the highway along Davis Dr. to town, with the many red lights of the five, or was it six, big buses glowing like lighted Christmas trees all the way. Tomorrow they have a meeting at the plant to discuss things, and one subject will be: "Can you think of anything to improve our annual picnic?" What do you think the answer will be?

Our boy Gar done it! Pipe a few notes about Gar Doolittle, of Aurora juniors, currently performing for Newmarket juniors in their quest for the Ontario junior "B" baseball title. Young Doolittle, a former member of the Canadian Armored Corps, and one of Aurora high's best all-round athletes, attended the Toronto Leafs baseball school last week and was one of the 36 picked as the best prospects in the camp. Quite a few North York baseballers attended the school.

George Haskett, the Newmarket manager, took in most of the sessions and had along with him Don Brown, Ken Broughton, Pee-Wee Rutledge, Grant Blight and Tommy Dales. "Mr. Frisch" was on the school's faculty and did a grand job, even if none of his boys caught the eyes of the scouts. Orval Rowse, Keith Jewitt, Carl Sellars of Milliken, Keith Kyle, and Jim McDonald of Aurora were also in attendance and every one of them gained a wealth of useful inside baseball knowledge. But it was Doolittle who caught the eye of Jimmy Grudzis and company.

First of all, he won the two sprint features, and established himself as a speed boy. Next he won himself a place on the second team of the school by virtue of a hit, two running put-outs, and a clean steal of second in the final trials. Last Friday he played right field for Carman Bush's hometowners and bashed out two hits in four trips to the plate as well as throwing a runner out at home. His team lost 18-8 but it was not Doolittle's fault and he looked as good as any of the outer gardeners on display. Never a hard hitter, he learned how to relax at the plate and on the sacks from Mr. Grudzis himself and proved an apt pupil against far-better pitching than he's been meeting in the North York loop.

Now don't get the idea the youngster is headed for a big league ball career. He intends to attend rehabilitation school this fall, and then go on to the physical health and education course at Toronto Varsity. The fact probably is that while he's plenty good as a junior ball player, he perhaps hasn't the stuff to go much further than top amateur ball. It is a tribute, however, to the work that is being done in the district by the baseball leaders to see a local youngster ranked with the best in Ontario for his age. The fact is that while our kids have as much ability as any others in Ontario, because of lack of time, the scarcity of ball diamonds, and the practical experiences of the coaches, the lads are not getting the type of inside ball they need soon enough or often enough to ever produce professional ball players or put the district at the top of the ball heap.

The crying towels are out and is our face red! Yes, the kids out Stouffville way, backed by four-hit pitching by Schpelman of Markham, took Newmarket 11-1 at Stouffville last Saturday in the first round of the district O.B.A. play-offs. They did it just about that decisively too, as the Haskett clan turned in a sorry performance.

Lefty Gibson pitched a sweet game for the canaltowners, despite the loss, but his teammates just couldn't field properly and most of them turned in an indifferent performance when "Stouffville" got a commanding lead. We use the quotes advisedly for Schpelman, Jewitt, Sellars, Forgie, Petch and Minton all hail from elsewhere than Stouffville.

Newmarket used the Doolittle brothers from Aurora, and both boys turned in a good game. "Fat" Doolittle replaced Winger behind the bat and played steady ball as well as getting two hits. Gar was in the outfield and got a hit and fielded well. Now don't get the idea the Newmarket kids are out of the running. Next Saturday they take on Stouffville in Newmarket and they figure they'll do the trick providing they get any breaks. One thing needed is a hearty support from the fans of Newmarket. Given the backing, the kids can and will do the rest. All week George Haskett has been cogitating about it and driving his charges in practice. Our scouts tell us he has just about decided to send Tommy Dales to the hilltop to put the silencer on the Stouffville offensive, and Tommy is ready to go on all cylinders. It'll be a battle worth seeing and we hope we don't have to eat our words again on the merits of the two teams.

Markham and Aurora were rained out last Saturday in Markham and they will likely be going full steam on Saturday at Aurora. Mac Clement, durable, all-round Hill athlete, Jack Atkinson, who became Auroratized last year with the Lions midget hockey champs, Sylvia Steffan, smooth fielding shortstop, and Norm Stunden, southpaw hurler from the Hill, have been added to the team and the Aurora boys should take some beating. "Markham" once again is a combined team and Leonard Simmons has been tossing restlessly in his sleep as he thinks of the foemen. His players are more confident.

It's Sunderland vs. Cambray for the finals in the Tri-County baseball league. Sunderland eliminated Bolsover in its bracket, and Cambray ousted Little Britain. Hop Hemphill, who pitched for Columbus Boys last year against Newmarket and had a trial with Kingston early this year, along with Williams, formerly of the R.C.D.'s at Camp Borden, handled the winning pitching assignment in the minor league all-star game at the Maple Leafs baseball school last week.

Softball play-offs are shortly at hand. Newmarket Vets, who can't be ousted from first place, will represent the district in the "B" series, and have been drawn against New Toronto Canadian Legion. The series is carded tentatively for Aug. 30 in New Toronto and Sept. 2 in Newmarket. Aurora Canadian Legion officials had been counting upon the Newmarket Vets as feature performers on their big Labor Day card, and Jack "Ceegars" McDonald and his boys are anxious to help out the Aurora vets.

SEA SERPENTS

By GOLDEN GLOW

Once again the season for sea serpents has opened and this true story from the east coast is among the first. I expected to hear Andy Clark tell us about it last Sunday then I realized that his territory hardly extends that far!

Some fishermen were out fishing, as usual, when they spotted this big black monster with horns and a long black tail, about half a mile off shore. They scuttled back to land to give the alarm, declaring that it had chased them in, and so it had. But to everyone's relief and glad surprise, a huge black cow came calmly walking up the beach. It had merely been taking a morning swim before breakfast.

for the O.S.A., has given his approval for a change in dates if it can be arranged, and since the vets would be lying idle for about ten days, the chances are it will work out satisfactorily for all concerned, at least the Aurora folks hope so.

The battle for the right to go on in the "C" series waxes merrily. Thornhill, Aurora and Lansing can all make play-off spots. The second and third teams in the group will meet for the right to go on in the finals.

It will be a best of three series, with the third game if necessary going to neutral grounds and the proceeds from the gate to the league treasury. Neutral umpires will handle the series, with Somers of Lansing, Ab Hulse, Dutch Forhan and Ben Sharpless named as the four Blind Toms to do the second guessing. Both Forhan and yours truly also hold official O.S.A. cards and will likely see action in some of the district games, according to convenor Smith.

Morley Cook has returned to the form which entitled him to rank as one of the best hurlers in the district a few years ago, and the big fellow will cause plenty of trouble from now on. Every game left in the regular schedule is plenty important and the fans won't want to miss a single fixture from now on.

Langstaff holds the key to the play-off situation, and while they can't make a play-off spot, they can make it mighty uncomfortable for the pack. That was a three-star hurling effort Bill Bowen turned in against Newmarket last week, and Huck Young can take a bow for his catching efforts. Here's the way the schedule was at the week-end.

	W	L	T	Pts.
Newmarket	11	3	0	22
Aurora	7	6	1	15
Thornhill	7	7	0	14
Lansing	6	7	0	12
Langstaff	2	9	1	5

Newmarket ladies have turned down a spot on the Labor Day bill at Aurora with regret. Most of the gals have made plans or are intending to for the last long weekend of the season, most of them having been in action over all the holidays so far this year. Either two Toronto teams, or one Toronto team and a combined district team, headed by Aurora ladies, will meet on the holiday. The withdrawal of the C.W.A.C. personnel from Aurora will not mean the withdrawal from action of the Aurora ladies' team. The local girls have canvassed the situation and decided there is sufficient talent available for the team to continue and some of the girls in khaki expect to be back for the play-offs.

George Kelson, manager of the Thornhill softball club, has come up with a couple of all-star teams which doubtless will cause a bit of friendly controversy. Here's the way George rates them: first team, catcher, Echlin, Thornhill; pitcher, Bill Bowen, Langstaff; 1b, Mickey Smith, Vets; 2b, Jacks, Lansing; ss, Ernie Hughes, Lansing; 3b, Scotty Mair, Newmarket; lf, Perry, Lansing; cf, Harvey Gibney, Newmarket; rf, Art Crean, Thornhill;

Second team, catcher, Charlie Case, Aurora; pitcher, Teddy Bennett, Thornhill; 1b, Norm Bowen, Langstaff; 2b, Fred Evans, Newmarket; ss, Stan Evans, Newmarket; 3b, George Stark, Willowdale; lf, Wilf White, Aurora; cf, Jimmy Crean, Langstaff; rf, Nels Findlay, Thornhill. These are two pretty fair teams at that. Umpire Ben Sharpless aided and abetted George in his two concoctions.

Rain interfered with the Foresters' softball tournament at Thornhill last Saturday and it will be played on Saturday, Aug. 31. Bruce Greig has entered a team in the Aurora legion's tournament to be known as Lake Simcoe All-Stars and that's exactly what it will be according to Bruce with players drawn from most every team in the group. With the wealth of talent available, Bruce should be able to field a team that will take quite a bit of beating.

Maple Buds come to Aurora tomorrow night to meet Combines in the final lacrosse match of the regular season with second place at stake. It should be quite a battle. Woodbridge has cinched first place, and under the ruling of Gene Dopp, secretary of the O.L.A., it has the option of either playing the third-place team or of taking a bye to the finals. The decision will be made by the weekend. Last week, Woodbridge journeyed to Midland, and despite the fact it was the first game it ever played on a wooden floor, it only lost the contest by one goal in the final minute of play.

Bill Cox, the Woodbridge netminder, lost his stick at one stage and for over 90 seconds successfully guarded the nets without it, using only his hands and protector. He got a big hand from the crowd.

Due to the critical illness of their mother, the three Burton brothers have been absent from the Combines line-up in recent games. The team played against Huntsville on Saturday night at Aurora without this trio, but the combination plays were not the same, and Hugh Kerr, elongated forward who generally turns in a fine game, in particular was lost without the "pony express" line.

Our contention that Saturday night sporting contests will draw a crowd any place was amply borne out last Saturday as one of the biggest lacrosse crowds of the year paid to see an exhibition game which hadn't received a lot of advertising. Fat James, according to rumor, is about at the parting of the ways with Mimico Montaineers. James needs a lot of work to show his best form and since he hasn't been getting it, he's failed to show his best this year. Next season he'll probably switch to Toronto Lakeshores. Maple Midgets, coached by the brainy Mike Miller, are out in front in the North York midget league. At the weekend, the standing among the kid lacrosse artists was as follows:

	W	L	T	Pts.
Maple	4	0	0	8
Aurora	2	1	2	6
Combines	1	2	1	3
Richmond Hill	1	3	0	2
Woodbridge	0	2	1	1

In the play-offs which start the week of Sept. 9, first and fourth teams will meet in a series, and second and third teams clash. It has been decided to confine the lacrosse this year within the local area, rather than proceed further. The officials feel that the youngsters are hardly experienced enough to go far in outside competition. Especially is this so under the present O.L.A. ruling, which allows teen-age players to play all season as seniors if good enough, and then by choice to revert back to their own age series before the play-offs start. We already have the unusual picture of practically the whole Owen Sound senior team deciding on the verge of play-offs in both senior and junior series, to concentrate on the latter.

Peel county officials have tossed a challenge at president Charlie Rowntree to send the North York winners against their winners after the championships are decided in a special series outside the O.L.A. Charlie will see the neighboring county boys get their wish.

Pot-pourri: Herb Cain has received word to report for hockey training with New York Rangers on Oct. 2 at Winnipeg. Herb is gradually getting into condition and looks forward to a good season. Joint McComb, we understand, is to report to Providence Reds for training early in September. McComb, it is claimed, is a chattel of the Rangers' camp. Tommy Burlington, spectacular centre player of Cleveland Barons, kept from the N.H.L. because he has but one eye, will be with Providence this season. It was back in 1940 that Burlington, then with Owen Sound, and McComb, the pivot star of Aurora Tigers, checked each other in the junior B series. McComb didn't take a back seat from Burlington either.

Flash Hollett, Detroit Redwings defence veteran, has announced his retirement from the winter sport and his determination to remain on his chicken ranch at Clarkson. Those in the know claim that while Flash is about due to retire, it won't be this season, and that his announcement is the usual preliminary to a salary squabble. Hollett, who resided at Lake Simcoe for several years and played softball for Keswick in the Lake Simcoe league, has many friends throughout North York.

Aurora softballers are raising funds with lucky tickets and fine prizes to buy windbreakers for the boys. The Holman proteges have struggled along on slender finances all season and are worthy of support from the fans. The ducats are going like hot cakes too. South Africa is the newest possibility for employment of Canadian hockey players. Johannesburg has a rink seating 5,000 and others are being built. An international series is planned for next spring, and in the meantime, several coaches and Canadian players are being sought. Russia, too, is in the importing business so far as coaches and one or two key players are concerned. At the present time, soccer is the sport most universally played but it looks as if hockey may run a close second in the not too distant future.

Horseshoes comes into its own on the Aurora legion sports program for the holiday. Bids have been sent to the various municipal councils and legion branches to have representatives present and some keen competition should result as the boys toss the equine foot toggery. The tournament will proceed while the other sports are in action.

Keith Nisbet fired a net 61 in the Walker Cup matches at the Highlands golf club last Saturday to lead the entire field. The Aurora foursome of club champion Larry Molyneaux, Bill Fry, Doug. Nisbet and Keith, topped the entry of 13 foursomes to bring back the trophy to Aurora for the first time in some years. The Barrie Golf and Country club had an entry. The entry from the Briars club, which was expected, failed to arrive. Molyneaux with a 77 turned in the best round of the day and the rest of the winning quartet were playing at the peak of their games.

Billy Taylor, Toronto Leafs and ex-Newmarket camp hockeyist, saw his good two-year-old, Canada's Teddy, take the feature at Stamford last Saturday. With Sam's Gift also going good, Billy finds himself in the position of owning two swell juveniles which are not entered for the feature three-year-old classics of 1947.

Land of Clover, ladies' softball team, defeated Newmarket ladies at Oakwood stadium in Toronto on Friday after being defeated by Newmarket the Saturday before in exhibition games. Newmarket lassies have indicated they can hold their own with the best intermediate teams in Toronto.

Cliff Chapman, the old cycling maestro now located in Alliston, is getting ready to ride in the road race on Labor Day, and on Saturday last wheeled down from Alliston in the smart time of one hour and 33 minutes. Chapman looks forward to the competition and at Alliston is busy with lacrosse and also hopes to get a cycling club started.

Wrong-Way Corrigan had nothing on our old friend, Bill Patrick, last Saturday night. Bill donned a sweater to help out the shorthanded Combines lacrosse team, and dropped over the boards in the thick of the play. He became mixed in his sweaters and gave one of his own team-mates some sturdy checking for a few minutes. Gordy Smith, Combines good goalie, is in Christie St. hospital following Saturday night's contest. Smith suffered a serious rib injury in the second period but gamely continued. He didn't know he was really hurt until Sunday. It may be that he will not be back for the play-offs. Norm. Alexander, rookie centre player, is a fair sort of goal-keeper and may sub for Smith. Actually the league might well consider giving Combines the use of Alf. Stong of Richmond Hill until Smith returns.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT

ACCUSED SAYS LIGHTS, COURT SAYS LIQUOR

Magistrate J. E. Pritchard, K. C., found Morris Nicholls, Toronto, guilty on a charge of careless driving and fined him $30 and costs of $16.75 or 30 days, in magistrate's court in Newmarket on Friday.

James McIntosh, Toronto, stated he and his wife were driving south on the Bradford highway on July 21 about 1.20 a.m. when a car approached them in a zig-zag fashion and cut across the highway in front of him causing a collision. He stated they were on their way to Toronto from Washaga Beach and it was a clear, moonlit night. He said the defendant was travelling about 45 miles an hour.

McIntosh said the damage to his car, a 1936 Ford, was in the neighborhood of $255, and that the car which Nicholls was driving was also badly wrecked. He stated Nicholls' head was cut and that he smelled of whiskey and gin. He stated there were glasses in the car and evidence that there had been drinking. The engine of the car had caught fire and he, along with some passing motorists, had helped to extinguish it, he said.

Provincial Constable Wm. Melbourne, who investigated the accident, stated that he found the 1936 Ford on the west side of the highway facing south, and the car driven by Nicholls, on the west side facing north. He stated the cars were locked together. When he arrived at York County hospital, Nicholls' wound had been dressed and he noticed he had been drinking, he said. Nicholls stated that if McIntosh's lights had not blinded him he would have missed him.

In finding Nicholls guilty, Magistrate Pritchard said that there was evidence of drinking. A conviction on the charge provides for the suspension of the driver's license of the accused. Nicholls was not the owner of the car.

Herbert Lepard, Newmarket, was fined $10 and costs or ten days on a charge of driving without a permit.

Magistrate Pritchard adjourned the charge against A. N. McNeill, Lloydtown, of having liquor other than on his own permit, until Sept. 6 for judgment and that the defense counsel might produce further evidence. McNeill pleaded not guilty to the charge.

Constable Gus Farquhar, Schomberg, said he had raided McNeill's premises on June 22 in the company of Constable Ronald Watt, Constable Meyer and Detetive Allan Wallace.

Constable Farquhar stated they had seized 13 pints of home-brew beer, a bottle of whiskey and a bottle of wine. He said McNeill later came in with another bottle of wine when he was alone in the house, the other constables having gone out to search the yard.

Constable Farquhar's evidence was corroborated by Constable Watt and Detective Wallace. Detective Wallace produced the search warrant and the provincial analyst's statement as to the "home-brew". He stated he had been present when a search had been made at a Toronto warehouse for the purchase slip for the wine and none had been found.

McNeill and John Hrycan, his partner, both stated they both bought wine and they didn't know on whose permit it was bought or who owned it.

Magistrate Pritchard reserved judgment in the case of Cecil Abott, charged with fraud, until Sept. 6. Edward O'Brien, Newmarket, was remanded in custody for one week on a charge of stealing silverware from Mrs. Isabelle O'Brien.

Full Program Arranged For Sutton Fair, Aug. 30-31

Friday and Saturday, Aug. 30 and 31, may be just another weekend for many people, but for all the fall fair exhibitors of York and Ontario counties, it is show days for the revived Sutton Horse Show and Fair.

Shut down after the show of August, 1939, when all the owners of horses went into the services, the annual event for the top of York comes back this year with a prize list and schedule of events that is bigger than ever.

There is a full program arranged from 1 p.m., Friday, to the evening of Saturday.

Friday has parts of Sutton Fair going in four different spots on the grounds: at the horse jumps where saddle horses go in singles, tandems and unicorns; at softball diamonds where eight junior farmer clubs of York and Ontario play; at the arena, filled with tables of ladies' work, children's work, root and vegetable display, flowers and baking; in front of grandstand, where children's races, open to all, climax in relay 440 yd. races.

Friday night sees street dance and games in downtown Sutton till the wee hours.

Saturday features two pacing race events, 2.18 and 2.27; pony races in two classes; judging of beef and dairy cattle, the draft and light horse classes, with specials for four-horse and six-horse hitch; judging sheep and swine and poultry; in the saddle horse ring, heavy hunters go their paces.

175 Members Enrolled In Maple Breeders' Club

The directors of the Maple Cattle Breeders' Association, at their last board meeting, learned from secretary J. M. McDonald that there are now 175 members and that farmers are reporting satisfaction with the calves which they are getting from artificial insemination. Buyers are picking up as many of these calves as possible at attractive prices.

President G. W. Keffer of Maple reported on the meeting of Simcoe county farmers at Barrie which he and some of the directors attended along with W. M. Cockburn, agricultural representative, Newmarket.

The meeting was called by a group of farmers of that district who are anxious to have the work extended into that county, and was presided over by S. L. Page of Barrie and F. A. Lashley of Alliston, agricultural representatives for North and South Simcoe respectively. Interest was keen and following an outline of the work by Mr. Keffer and Mr. Cockburn, 20 canvassers were appointed to contact the owners of Holstein cattle.

On Wednesday, Sept. 4, at 2 p.m., the association is holding a field day at the farm of Geo. C. Jackson, Downsview, where all the bulls of the association were bred and raised. The special speaker will be Byron Jenvey, Ingersol, former field man for the Canadian Holstein Association. W. P. Watson, assistant director of the Ontario livestock branch, will make some observations on artificial insemination in Great Britain, Denmark and Sweden as seen on his recent visit to Europe.

The bull barn at Maple will be open for the public to inspect up to 1.45 p.m. and again following the meeting. Promptly at 2 p.m. a draw will be made at Mr. Jackson's for one free service to a club bull open to members and non-members there at that time.

RENFREW SEED SAID LOW IN LOOSE SMUT

As fall seeding approaches, many farmers are enquiring for seed wheat from a crop reasonably free of loose smut which on an average reduced yields by four to five bushels per acre this year, agricultural representative, W. M. Cockburn, reports. Mr. Cockburn inspected a number of fields produced from seed brought in from Renfrew last year and there was only about one percent of loose smut at time of heading, in contrast to the ten to 12 percent in most fields.

There is considerable interest in this seed and it can be procured from some of the local seed dealers, seed cleaning plants, or Mr. Cockburn will put farmers in touch with growers. Any farmer planning to enter the 50-Bushel Wheat Club for 1946-47 would do well to secure some of this seed, Mr. Cockburn says. The loose smut organism is inside the wheat and can only be destroyed by the hot water treatment.

In Memoriam

Goodwin—In loving memory of my dear parents, Edward Goodwin, who passed away on Aug. 26, 1942, and Rosa Ann Brown, who passed away on Jan. 19, 1943.
Your memory is as dear today
As the day you passed away.
Ever remembered by your daughter, Gertrude.

Morris—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, William Morris, who passed away Aug. 19, 1941.
Today recalls sad memories
Of a dear one gone to rest
And the ones who think of him today,
Are the ones who loved him best.
Sadly missed by wife and family.

Rutledge—In loving memory of a dear daughter and sister, Daisy, who passed away August 25,1943.
God took her home, it was His will
But in our hearts she liveth still.
Ever remembered and missed by Dad, Mother and family.

Sedore—In loving memory of a dear mother, Florence Sedore, who passed away Aug. 19, 1940.
There is never a day that passes by
But our thoughts reach out to you,
Never a joy that comes our way
But we wish you could share it, too.
We miss your love, your cheery ways
Please, God, just let her know
That we down here do not forget
We miss and love her so.
Ever remembered by her daughters, Nellie and Doris.

Sedore—In loving memory of our dear mother, Florence Sedore, who passed away Aug. 19, 1940.
God led you through the valley
Into pastures ever green,
He led you with a kindly hand
Your suffering he had seen.
A wonderful mother, kind and true
Always ready to help us through
We miss you most who loved you best
But, dearest mother, you've earned your rest.
Deeply missed by son, Bill, daughter-in-law, Eva, grandchildren, Pauline, Donna Jean and Neil.

Tansley—In loving memory of my dear husband, Byron Tansley, who passed away Aug. 22, 1945.
I have lost my soul's companion,
A life linked with my own,
And day and day I miss him more
As I walk through life alone,
Oh what would I give to clasp his hand,
His dear, kind face to see,
To hear his voice, to see his smile
That meant so much to me:
His spirit has fled, his sufferings o'er,
At the fireside he will join me no more.
Ever remembered by his loving wife, Matilda Tansley.

perature, fast pulse and prostration. The child may lie about and have no inclination to go to school. Headache and stiff neck are frequently present with the above symptoms. These indefinite symptoms are usually present before the onset of paralysis and this is the all-important time to call the doctor in order that the child may be taken to the hospital and a definite diagnosis made by microscopic examination of the spinal fluid.

While there is no cure or specific preventative known for the disease, much information has been gained about it since the severe epidemic of 1937, which has resulted in the lowering of the number of cases accompanied with paralysis. So that it would look at present that if all cases of infantile paralysis could be diagnosed before the onset of paralysis, the successful treatment would be a very simple matter.

During the epidemic of 1937, great were the hopes of a cure in the use of the blood serum from a convalescent case but these hopes were doomed to disappointment, after being tried out for a long period of time. Another preventative treatment of 1937, the spraying of all the school children's upper air passages, was disappointing and soon fell into disuse.

Certain preventative measures are necessary when an epidemic of this dreaded disease threatens, among which are the following:

(a) Keep all children away from crowds such as picnics, summer camps, theatres. The idea is prevalent that schools are as well kept open as children are better at school, living at home under normal conditions.

(b) Swimming or bathing in waters that might be contaminated.

(c) The control of house flies and mosquitoes, having particular regard to their breeding places.

(d) Wash or cook fruits before serving. Also vegetables.

(e) Boil drinking water or chlorinate if the supply is questionable.

(f) Use only milk or cream that has been pasteurized or boiled.

(g) Keep all outside toilets clean and use chloride of lime in them regularly. This will act as a deodorant and disinfectant.

(h) Proper disinfection of the discharges of all suspected cases.

(i) Postpone surgical operations where possible.

Urge Opening Of Large Homes To Ease Shortage

An appeal is being made to all Aurora householders to provide rooming and household facilities to newcomers to Aurora by the Aurora town council. There is an urgent need for accommodation, pending the building of homes and the easing of the supply of building materials, and many persons in Aurora could ease the situation by sharing accommodations, Town Clerk Harold Clark points out. At present, there are at least ten to 15 new families awaiting quarters in Aurora, and the heads of the households, at least, require rooms, or rooms and board. Aurora faces the most critical housing situation in its history with an increasing population and everything pointing to a gradual influx of residents who will be permanently employed here. A survey finds a surprising number of large homes housing only a few persons.

Present buildings under construction are all either sold or leased. The town has had one of the largest changes of property by way of sale in its history, but fewer houses are coming on the market now as building conditions keep most householders to their own property.

Mr. Clark will be glad to receive the names of any persons having available housing quarters or rooms to rent.

MAPLE BOWS 4-0 IN MIDGET BOXLA

Aurora midget lacrosse team handed Maple its first defeat of the season and went into a tie for first place as it took a 4-0 win in a rugged contest. Bill Patrick scored the opener, and from then on Aurora was never headed. Another goal by Bill and markers by Howard Patrick and Orval Lawson ended the scoring.

Maple arrived late due to a truck mishap. Tom Armitage and Jones were best for the visitors, with Charlie Southwood, Loring Doolittle, and the two Patricks leading the Aurora assault. Bill Patrick and Dick Taylor handled the game. Doolittle of Aurora received a nasty gash on the head.

SCHOOL OPENS SEPT. 3

Principal John G. McDonald of Aurora public school reminds parents that school will open this year on Tuesday, Sept. 3. Parents of children who will be starting to school for the first time are requested to register at the school on Saturday, Aug. 24, at 8 p.m.

Huntsville Returns Home With Scalp Of Combines

One of the largest lacrosse crowds of the year enjoyed Saturday night's exhibition clash between Huntsville and Combines which resulted in a 9-5 win for the visitors. Combines were minus the three Burton brothers and McKenzie, and used Bill Patrick of Aurora and Son Rowntree of Woodbridge as replacements. Minus their usual smooth passing attack, they were not able to cope with the northerners who played grand lacrosse and were machine-like in their ball handling. Both Gordy Smith and Hamilton, the visiting netminder, were brilliant in saving their teams time after time.

Harry Sutton opened the scoring for the homesters on a nice effort at the five-minute mark, with Brunski and C. Snowden scoring for the visitors in their period. Huntsville increased their lead in the second, Millest and Snowden doing the scoring with Thompson sandwiching one in between. It was the same in the third period, Millest and Brunski scoring and Rowntree getting one back. In the last quarter after Millest had scored again, Jeff Elliott banged home two, and it appeared that Combines might rally. Two quick goals from poor passing by their opponents gave Huntsville the winning margin in the final two minutes. The fans enjoyed the contest all the way.

V. Snowden, giant defenceman of the visitors, who was the hardest man to stop, Millest with three counters, C. Snowden, W. Higgs and Brunski were best for the visitors. Sutton, Wark and Alexander had the edge for Combines.

Huntsville: Hamilton, V. Snowden and C. Snowden, R. Higgs, Woodcock, Holmes, S. Snowden, Millest, W. Higgs, Stinson, C. Higgs, Brunski, Davidson.

Combines: Smith, Wark, Evans, Thompson, Norris, Kerr, Alexander, Johnston, Elliott, Patrick, Rowntree, Sutton, Haugh.

Referees: Rowntree and Hulse.

LACROSSE SCHEDULE

The balance of the North York midget lacrosse league schedule, just released by league officials, finds the following games listed: Aug. 26, Combines vs Aurora, and Woodbridge vs. Richmond Hill; Aug. 28, Aurora vs. Maple; Aug. 29, Richmond Hill vs. Woodbridge; Sept. 2, Combines vs. Richmond Hill; Sept. 4, Woodbridge vs. Maple.

First team plays fourth, second team plays third in series of play-offs. Play-offs start the week of Sept. 9.

AURORA TEAM WINS HIRAM WALKER CUP

An Aurora foursome, captained by club champion Larry Molyneaux, and composed of Keith and Doug Nisbet and Bill Fry, captured the Hiram Walker trophy at the Highlands Golf club on Saturday. Thirteen foursomes competed with Barrie supplying three, and Lake Wilcox four teams. The competition was keen and the visitors were warm in their praise of the condition of the Aurora course. In addition to winning the honors of the day, Larry Molyneaux turned in the low gross card, and Keith Nisbet the low net card.

MARK BIRTHDAY

On Sunday, Aug. 11, friends and relatives gathered at the summer cottage of Mr. Jacob Peterman of Aurora at Glenville to honor him on the occasion of his birthday.

Just before sitting down to supper served on the lawn, pictures were taken of the party. Mr. Peterman cut the birthday cake presented by his granddaughter, Marguerite, and two of his great-grandchildren sang Happy Birthday.

Midgets' 14-Hit Attack Swamps Markham In Finals

With a 14-hit attack and backed by a four-hit pitching effort by Ronnie Simmons, Aurora midgets romped past Markham kids 14-5 in the first game of the O.B.A. midget playdowns at Markham on Tuesday night. Aurora was full value for its win, and completely outclassed the homesters. Aurora used Norm Stunden and Jack Atkinson of Richmond Hill, while Markham used three Stouffville boys and two from Milliken.

Aurora garnered three runs in the first, third and seventh, two in the fourth and sixth, and one in the second. Markham's scoring came in the fifth with three, and the seventh with two. Both Markham rallies were made on Aurora errors.

Bob Ringwood started on the mound for Markham and was soundly whacked, being relieved by Brown in the fourth. Simmons, on the Aurora rubber, had the batters eating out of his hand and fanned 14 batters. Only one ball went to the outfield, and centre-fielder Jack Backley took care of it with a running catch ending in a somersault.

R. Simmons and Atkinson paced the offensive with three hits each. Simmons also drew two walks. Only Andrews and McDonald failed to come through on the hit parade.

Minton, at first for Markham, played a spectacular game and was easily the best for the losers. Brown and Davis also played well. The entire Aurora team is deserving of praise for their efforts.

Gerry and Duard Rose of Markham handled the officiating.

Aurora: McDonald, R. Simmons, Andrews, Kyle, G. Simmons, Stunden, Backley, Atkinson.

DOOLITTLE DOES MUCH AT LEAF BALL SCHOOL

Garfield Doolittle, of Aurora Lions junior baseball club and veteran of the Canadian Armored Corps, attended the Toronto Maple Leafs baseball school in Toronto last week and did all right for himself. Now with Newmarket juniors in the O.B.A. playdowns, Doolittle was picked from among 200 boys attending from all over Ontario to play in the all-star game with the best 36 professional prospects last Friday morning. He played right field in the final, getting two hits in four trips to the plate, snared two fly balls, and pegged a runner out at the plate, a feature performance for his team.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Doolittle and before enlisting was an all-round athlete at Aurora high school. A brother, Loring, is presently catching for Newmarket juniors and playing lacrosse with Aurora midgets. In speed trials, young Doolittle showed his heels to the entire school.

On entering the home to the strains of Here Comes the Bride, played by Mrs. James Emmons, Centre St., they were showered with confetti. Mrs. Ross Linton, wife of the mayor, made a speech of welcome to Mrs. Raeside. Mrs. Raeside presented Mrs. Linton with a bouquet of gladioli grown by her father-in-law, James Raeside.

During the evening, musical numbers were sung by Misses Marjorie and Joyce Pattenden, with Mrs. George Pattenden accompanying them on the guitar. Many beautiful gifts were received by the young couple, after which lunch was served.

Provincial Police To Make Quarters For District Here

Aurora is to be headquarters for No. 5 district of the Ontario provincial police commencing early this fall when it is expected that around 12 provincial constables will be stationed here.

Police Commissioner William Stringer has approved the renting of the upper quarters of the Aurora municipal building as headquarters and the present tenants, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pennock, have been given notice to vacate by the municipality. The lease is now in the process of being signed at terms satisfactory to both parties.

It is understood that Aurora will be the site of the new broadcasting system to be inaugurated for the Ontario provincial police for central Ontario. Ontario provincial police cars will be serviced with new, two-way radio receiving and sending sets of considerable volume and range in the near future and messages will be relayed from Aurora. A high broadcasting tower is planned, either within the municipality or to the south of Aurora, but no definite announcement has been made in this regard.

The rear of the municipal building will be re-surfaced and will provide parking space for the fleet of police cars that will be located in Aurora. These will be used for special calls, enabling the police to fan out quickly to the scene of trouble or danger as the occasion arises.

It is expected that as soon as possible, the constables who will be posted here will move their families to town.

The new headquarters will see 24-hour service, and in addition to the upstairs, the vaults in the basement as well as part of the cellar will be used.

"We are glad to welcome the Ontario provincial police to Aurora," said Mayor Ross Linton. "We will do all in our power to aid the Ontario authorities in establishing the type of headquarters they desire. Aurora's favorable location, and its particular suitability for radio broadcasting, plus the type of quarters desired, were responsible for the choice being made. The lease is now prepared and it will be signed soon."

AURORA DAIRY IN NEW HANDS

After 12 years, C. E. Sparks and Lyle Sparks, owners of the Aurora Dairy, have sold their business to Douglas Harrison. The new owner takes possession Sept. 3 and will continue the same policy with the business and milk bar.

Mr. Sparks and his son will continue to reside here. In 1934 they came to Aurora from St. Catharines and purchased the business, then located at Centre and Spruce Sts., from Gordon Graham. In 1938 the present building at Yonge and Centre Sts. was erected.

The new owner was employed for five years in the business, two years as a salesman, and three years in the pasturizing plant. He then took over a milk route which he has now sold. He brings to the business a full knowledge of the problems involved.

SHOW FLOWERS AUG. 24

The annual fall flower show of the Aurora Horticultural Society is being held in the United church Sunday-school room on Saturday, Aug. 24. Entries will be received from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. The show will be open to the public from 4.30 p.m. to 9.30 p.m. One of the best shows of the year is anticipated.

Tennis Club Plans Open Tournament On Labor Day

All courts are now in full swing at the Aurora tennis club and there are 42 paid members. The club officials are out for 50 members and expect to get them.

Under the chairmanship of "Mickey" McNaught, singles championships for men and ladies are under way with the draw being posted at the courts. The committee urges all entered to get their games over as soon as possible.

On Labor Day, the club will hold an open doubles tournament, men, ladies and open classes, and it is expected there will be entries from Newmarket, Mount Albert, Richmond Hill, Uxbridge, Toronto, and other centres.

Main problem of the club is proper fencing, and a drive for funds is underway. Many have helped already and those interested should contact the secretary, Dr. C. R. Boulding. It is hoped to erect a new fence either late this fall or in the early spring.

REPLAY LATE GAME AT PARK TONIGHT

Langstaff failed to arrive on schedule for its softball fixture on Tuesday evening with the result the game was called because of darkness in the last of the seventh. At that stage, Langstaff was in front 6-5, and Aurora had the tieing and winning runs on base with only one down. It was one of the best games of the season to that stage with Bill Bowen for the visitors and Ed. Tidman for Aurora locked in a tight struggle. Aurora hit Bowen harder than at any previous time this year.

The game will be re-played in the Aurora park this evening starting at 7 p.m. sharp. Aurora will finish its schedule on Monday at Langstaff. Both of these games are vital to Aurora's play-off chances, and they are attracting wide interest among district fans.

Play-off Chances Improve As Aurora Takes Thornhill

Aurora softballers strengthened their play-off hopes by a neat 6-5 win over Thornhill away from home last Thursday night. Aurora got off to a shaky start, Thornhill leading 5-1 at the end of the second, but from there on the team played smart ball and Morley Cook on the mound improved every inning.

Aurora got two runs back in the third, and in the fifth knocked Nels Findlay from the mound, Lloyd Morgan driving Case to third from where Charlie scored the winning run after McCarty's outfield out.

McDonald made the feature catch of the game as he snared Teddy Bennett's bid for a home run in deep left field. Bennett, in his stay on the mound, fanned five in two innings. Cook gave up six hits and fanned seven. The game ended in semi-darkness, both teams just managing to squeeze in a full seven innings.

FIREMEN CALLED OUT

Early Sunday morning, the Aurora fire brigade was called to extinguish a blaze in the garage at The Windmill on Yonge St. at Oak Ridges. Little damage was done by the fire which was attributed to spontaneous combustion.

PLAY FRIDAY

Maple will meet Combines in an intermediate game at Aurora arena on Friday, Aug. 23, at 8.30 p.m. This is the last game of the regular schedule prior to the play-offs.

Davis Employees Picnic At Alcona, 500 Go By Bus, Car

Five hundred of the employees of Davis Leather Co. Ltd., their wives, children and sweethearts attended on Saturday afternoon, at Alcona Beach, what they all hope to be an annual picnic of the firm.

With the skies overcast and dismal, and latest radio weather reports as gloomy as they come, the Davis people decided to go on and ignore the weather. It was very fortunate that they did because no sooner did they cross to the other side of Churchill, the skies cleared and perfect weather followed the picnickers right up to the minute they left for home.

A wonderful time was reported by all present. A group picture of the whole assembly and snapshots of numerous sporting events have been taken but none of the prints are available for this week's issue.

A large and enthusiastic committee composed of the union representatives and other employees drafted into this committee are having a post-mortem meeting to plan for a better and bigger picnic for the next year.

Here are the results of the various events for children and adults for which prizes were given by the management:

The challenge game of horseshoes between the first floor and the upper floors ended in a tie 18 games to 18, and will be played off later.

Winners of the lucky draw: Ruby Morris, Audrey Sweet; The mysterious Mr. X was Miss Audrey Benton, and nobody guessed.

BOWEN WAS

from the Veterans' batters comes a mournful sound. (Sporting) Never pay off on a bet until they post results. (Poetic) Bowen was thrown. (Colloquial) Too much Bowen.

Newmarket has drawn a bye in the league play-offs, while second and third place teams play off for the right to enter the finals.

VISITS OLD HAUNTS

Bernie Gantner, one-time physical training instructor at the Newmarket military camp and member of the camp baseball and hockey teams, was in Newmarket Friday afternoon. Mr. Gantner is now employed as sports editor on a daily newspaper in New Mexico, United States.

PEACHES ARE ABUNDANT

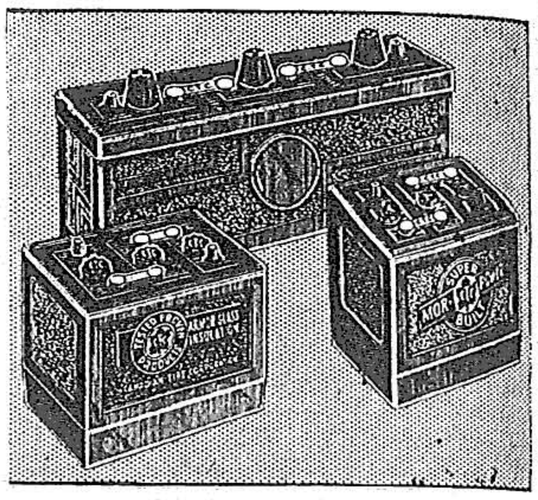

This year a record crop of peaches is being harvested in Canada, says the Dominion Department of Agriculture. And Canadian grown peaches are of incomparable quality and flavor. Eat them fresh in shortcake, like this young lady is doing, in pies, in salads and can them for winter use. There's plenty available at reasonable prices.

For the World's Hungry

Food products of every kind are even now more urgently required than during the war years. Canadian farm girls are working on the farm front helping to harvest the crops. Too precious to be wasted coarse grains are needed to feed livestock for meat for the people of Canada and to help feed the hungry millions in other countries. Many farmers may earn additional grain by raking their stubble this fall.

News On Recreation

By E. R. MATHER, RECREATION CO-ORDINATOR

The summer activities, both organized and individual, are drawing to a close. The youngsters have had the opportunity of engaging in many activities, at the very effective playground program, sponsored by the Newmarket Lions club, at the Lions park, and taking the odd swim down at Wilcox under the recreation council's swimming program. The older boys have had two hardball teams in the North York Lions league and there has been an opportunity for those that couldn't make these two teams to play hardball during the summer. The vets and the ladies have been having a thoroughly good time all summer and have been providing excellent shows for the spectators. The latter two teams are in their respective play-off schedules, ladies, Thursday, Vets, Friday, and the junior baseball is in the second game of the play-offs on Saturday.

With the young people going back to school, and cooler weather, more activities will be transferred indoors and now is the time to get working on some of them. Arts and crafts projects, drama programs, social get-togethers, gymnasium activities, can all be planned for now. Athletic programs for the early fall can be arranged; for the youngsters the schools will be able to handle some of their recreation activities, but for adults beyond school age much will depend upon their own efforts and initiative.

There are two projects getting under way immediately and for which meetings are being called. First, the Ski club, which during the war years was forced to curtail its operations, is calling a meeting for Friday, Aug. 30, at 7.30 p.m. in the council chambers. George Byers hopes to pass over the reins as president to a new executive, and plans will be made for a successful year. Arrangements have to be made to get ski-runs and trails at Glenville cleaned out, etc. And if anyone wants to get in some good skiing this winter, these little jobs must be done now. All previous members and all who are interested in becoming members are urged to attend.

Some interest has been displayed in the volley-ball games that have been going on in the Lions park and I have been asked if there is going to be a league started this year. Volley-ball is a game played over a high net, with a small inflated ball being batted with the hand. It is a team game, six players, and is played by persons of all ages, and can be played indoors or out. On Monday, Aug. 26, at 7.30 p.m. in the council chambers, there will be a meeting to discuss and arrange a possible series of games.

If interest is shown in other activities we can go ahead and arrange teams, leagues, clubs, or whatever is necessary. The survey recently sent out by the recreation council has not been completed fully enough to get suitable information. But many adults have expressed an existing interest in such subjects as bridge, dancing, reading, skating, skiing, etc. Skiing is being organized, as mentioned above, but there are possibilities in the others that have not been touched yet. The bridge enthusiasts could get together and have a few tournaments, or possibly form a duplicate bridge club; those interested in reading might form a discussion club, or literary appreciation group; some skaters might be eager to take up fancy skating; and the dancers might want to form ballet, classic, tap, clog, square, or social groups to learn more about the art and to practise it. These are all possibilities and if desired they can be gone ahead with. Mount Albert, for instance, has already made arrangements with one of Newmarket's bowling alleys for two evenings a week in order to accommodate a new league of 67 couples; if Newmarket citizens are interested in forming a bowling league, they had better get in there fast, and this department will be glad to assist.

In connection with the survey, if there are any cards not handed in I would be glad to receive them in the council chambers, phone 695, and if there are some people who have not filled in any, there are extra ones available in the Era and Express office, in the town clerk's office, or in the council chambers, and they can be returned to these places. Also I will be happy to hear from any persons who would like to become members of any clubs or are interested in getting some started.

CARNIVAL GOES ON TONIGHT

Rain washed out the Newmarket Lions club carnival at the Lions club park last night but the club president, R. C. Morrison, left, and the chairman of the carnival, H. J. Luck, are confident of carrying on tonight. The carnival, an annual affair, provides funds for the Lions club to carry on its welfare work.

HAS TENT SHOW

A feature attraction at the carnival is the tent show which is being operated by W. M. Cockburn. With the other attractions of the carnival, it will be in full operation tonight at the Lions club park.

DELEGATES NAMED

S. B. Griffith and Rev. G. H. Bache, Newmarket, have been appointed to attend a conference to be held this fall when the question of the union of the Free Methodist church and the Wesleyan Methodist church will be discussed. The appointments were made at the Free Methodist conference at Uxbridge Wednesday.

TOUGH FOOT FOLK

Pedestrians are becoming tougher all the time and they may yet succeed in avoiding extinction. The other day a St. Louis jaywalker, who was bowled over by a street-car and then run over by a truck, got up and knocked down a traffic cop who bawled him out.
